

Another Story

(Rusty Stone, 2021)

Six A.M. the alarm clock rings
Don't know what the next hours bring
Cooking coffee turn on the news
Desperately looking for the working shoes
Spend two hours in a traffic jam
The boss is an asshole and don't understand
Need more money to pay the bills
Payable apartment not a castle in the hills

No guts no glory
No pain no gain
Just another story
About a hardworking man

Day in and day out
Can't sleep cause the brain's too loud
Working everyday from nine to five
Doin' everything somehow to survive
Hard work and broke down to the bone
No smiling faces waiting at home
Goin' home while the suns going down
Still miles away in a grey dirty town

No guts no glory
No pain no gain
Just another story
About a hardworking man

Friday afternoon the weekend rolls around
Saturday evening I'm gonna rock the town
Sunday I'll sleeping late
Spend the whole day making love with my mate
Monday morning it starts all over again
The story of a hardworking man
Blood, sweat and tears is all I know
All of my life until I go

No guts no glory
No pain no gain
Just another story
About a hardworking man
